

New Board Staff Member Announced

The Nebraska State Board of Public Accountancy welcomes Ms. Kristen VanWinkle as the Board's administrator. Ms. VanWinkle replaces Ms. Jo Lowe who retired from the State of Nebraska on June 30, 2016.

Ms. VanWinkle is a former employee of the Nebraska Department of Education and previously worked at Nelnet in Lincoln. She has a Bachelors of Science Degree in Business from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln.

"We welcome Kristen to our team and are excited to have a new set of eyes on our processes, along with the experience she brings from her past work and education. She is learning fast and we hope our permit holders and registrants are patient and understanding as she learns her new position. We will miss Jo but wish her well in her deserved retirement" according to Board Executive Director Dan Sweetwood.