

CPE for Certifications, Exams and Licensures

The NBPA has approved the following CPE hours for passing exams and obtaining certifications for the following designations. The NBPA will award CPE hours for the year the certification was received.

Please note: If the permit holder earns CPE for completing an exam preparation course, they can only claim the CPE granted by the prep course administrator or the CPE for passing the exam. Licensees cannot earn CPE for both.

The CPE hours must not exceed a total of 40 hours over a two-year renewal period.
